to, Goodfellow, Zarushah, Mackinac, Gray, Smith, Mayne, Duncan, Keen, and We. We replied, "Tupay."

Then we were again to announce that on Monday next, July 1st, a service of song be given in connection with the Baccara Aires Band of Hope in the Barraza, North Church, Calle Santo Domingo, at 10 o'clock. We replied, "Tupay."

The service will be taken for the purpose of purchasing a piano.

Our esteemed Monividean contemporary the River Plate Times shares the general opinion of the circle of friends. It says: "We have an idea that the word it anathematises in the following paragraph originally came from Wall Street, New York:—An abominably common word, but has been creeping into financial papers lately, in the shape of horde." As this latest specimen of horde's usage expresses nothing that is already contained in the old world vocabulary, we are satisfied, we fall to see the beauty of it."

Our esteemed friend Don Nicolas Low owed us yesterday a neatly made-up list of neatly packed boxes of Zava's and neatly cut into this slice, which gave us much more tempting appearance than our old familiar, supremely healthy, but rather rough-looking fingers, the foregoing is the idea that Juan Juan had turned out such things so easily.

The "Fille du Tambour Major" as given at the San Martin has proved the trump measure do not keep Yellow Jack, the Visitor from the Ganges, the Grandmother and the Yellow Fever, the Cholera, the cold, then they must be a very pernicious lot.

Specialty grand and solemn ceremonies will take place in the Cathedral to-morrow, the 29th inst., at 10 o'clock.

The Custom House is a hard nut to crack; but it will be crackle-pome day, in the good time coming. It is said that Colonel Rabaine, the new Administrator, already has a plan for the complete reformation to the true inwardness of the Agguan stable which is his mission to clean. The old story.

There was a Dedication. Sermons to-day by St. Peter's Anglican Church, Flores. See Church Notices.

The Rt. Hon'ble the Lord Mayor signed the death warrant of a lot of dogs yesterday, in other words he set the poison very early. He said that a great number of any value had better look sharp after them. This abominable and most dangerous practice of poisoning dogs in the public streets is a disgrace to a civilized city and Mr. Bolitt would have done far better by branding it and having the dogs killed, if they must be killed, in some more decent and less perilous fashion.

The very able and learned legal counsel lawyer that one day, after having a slight discussion with the Judge, he deliberately turned his back on that personage, and started to walk. "Are you trying, sir," said the Judge sternly, "to sit on the Judge's neck?" "No sir," was the reof the Gargano scene. Produced by the same company, the play is absolutely the finest ever seen in this country, and the long-continued applause at the end of the opera was the most possible proof that the large audience, which had come to see the play, really, Sirs, Ocean's sea wall and acted mightily, whilst the efforts of Sirs. Borrelli and Signori Accorci, Piracino, Piffi and Pello were met with frequent and all the time the most enthusiastic applause. We were very much surprised to find a great visit to the San Martin, as music is some of Offenbach's best; it is however, a great pity that so many imprints should have been interpreted as being of the same sort, and that the music transferred from Italy to Spain; the sea was best when the French music was being sung, and it seems altogether like decoration to a dead country's memory to attempt to improve on scores.

We regret to find the following announcement in the Times. The deceased composer was brother Mr. Mendelssohn. We are not sure what we sincerely conclude:—"The death of one of the most popular of German opera writers is reported from Sirsburg. Our critic, Mr. Nessler's two hours' review of the new opera, 'Hansel and Gretel' by the Trompeter von Salkingen,' stated success in Germany that it is only comparable to the vogue enjoyed by Gill and Sullivan upon the English stage, and has drawn rivers of music, and it seems:

very probable that they will survive after twenty very many years. The English recited upon the 18th, and the French upon the 19th. The two operas were called forth, produced here in 1844, was unfavourable. The composer, who wrote some light dramatic works besides the above, was in his 60th year.

Reporters say that Turgenev is now in full flight (not Highland flight) there. The Socialised Reconstructive Party made its debut there the other night, and is doing something, the "Daily News" says, "being everything that can be desired."

The Johns, Kays and Johnnies of old Losary must have had a fine time of it on Monday last. Our British contingent, consisting of three or four, was, I am told, very small. John is the ugliest name ever bestowed on slaves, wiles, sinners, or deviants. It says: "Tuesday was undoubtedly a day of triumph. The first of the party were not called Johns. It was a pleasure to see those fortunate signs brimming with content."

A morning colleague says that the new Government will be full of friends of Mr. Arnold's error and try his hand at "interfering" in the Bala. We doubt the news, and strongly advise His Excellency to the Bala alone. As well try to stop the sun from shining, as to stop population in gold or anything else by laws and decrees, even if it were desirable to do so.

Our rhymatic friends, who are not so good as our historians, say that the Physic's medical advisers diet her for the same distressing complaint. A fashionable exchange says:—"Queen Victoria is very careful in her diet. Her dinner consists of clear soup, rare beef, chicken sauce and salad. She is not allowed to eat vegetables or drink champagne or beer.

She takes tea and toast for breakfast and a chop and stale bread for luncheon. Her rheumatism is somewhat better."
